SPRING

Steven Albaugh, conductor
Laura Sandham, conductor
Gina Stutzman Toso, conductor
Stephen Swanson, accompanist

JUNE 3, 2021

Music is taught at Rosemount High School

*Not because you are expected to major in music...
Not because you are expected to sing all your life...*

Not so you can relax...

Not so you can have fun...

But - so you will be human...

So you will recognize beauty...

So you will be sensitive...

So you will be closer to an infinite world beyond this world...

So you will have something to cling to...

So you will have more love, more compassion,

more gentleness, more good...

In short, more life!

The Graduates

Gabriel Afram sang in Cantemus, Vivace, Da Capo, and Concert Choir. His favorite high school memory is the state track and field meet in 2019. Gabriel hopes to continue with track and field after high school and wants to become a teacher. He wants to thank one of his friends from his sophomore year who really taught him how to be a better person, and his advice to younger students is "Never give up and don't listen to what anyone says, because let's be real: not everyone is as cool as they seem, and we are cooler than we take ourselves for."

Samira Awad sang in Cantabile, Cantabile Chamber Ensemble, Bel Canto, Da Capo, Aurora, and Concert Choir. She also participated in numerous theatre productions both as a performer in OnStage, musicals, and plays, and as a member of the tech crew. Samira's favorite memory is singing the opener in OnStage 2019. After high school, she plans to study audio production at Hennepin Technical College.

Ryan Armstrong sang in Concert Choir this year, his first and last year of choir. He was also active in theatre and band, performing in OnStage, Shrek the Musical, and Marching Band, and working on the tech crew. Ryan plans to pursue a BFA in Acting at the University of Minnesota–Duluth. He wants to thank all the teachers in the performing arts department for providing such great opportunities for students.

Charlie Banta sang in Cantemus, Vivace, Da Capo, Luminos, and Concert Choir. He was also in Tri-M Honor Society and performed in OnStage this year (his favorite high school memory). Outside of the arts, Charlie was a member of the boys' swim team. He plans to begin his college journey at Inver Hills CC. Charlie's advice to younger students is "Never tell yourself you're not ready to do something, because in truth, there are some things where you'll never be completely ready. And if you never will be, you might as well just do it anyway."

Syd Ausen sang in Cantabile, Bel Canto, and Concert Choir. She will attend MSU–Mankato and plans to study psychology. Syd wants to thank her mom for always pushing her to do her best, and for being her biggest fan, supporter, and her rock through everything. Syd's advice to younger students is to stay on top of your schoolwork, but Charlie Barnick sang in Cantemus, Vivace, and Concert Choir. He also played football and competed in track and field. His favorite choir memory is singing with his brother at the holiday concerts. Charlie will attend Gustavus Adolphus College to study business and play football. He advises younger students in the choral program to make the most of their time in choir, and he thanks his parents for always being there for him and having faith in him.

don't forget that you have just four short years of high school — so do what YOU want to do, have fun, join clubs and activities, and most importantly find friends that make you happy and push you to be the best version of yourself.

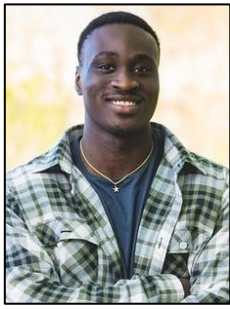

Katie Austin sang in Cantabile and Bel Canto. Her favorite choir memory is the Chicago trip with Bel Canto her sophomore year. She was also heavily involved in the theatre program and did tech for every theatre production during her four years at RHS. Katie will attend the University of Wisconsin–Eau Claire to pursue a degree in English education. She wants to thank Mrs. Toso for always being there for her students.

Ahilya Bharrat sang in Cantabile, Cantabile Chamber Ensemble, Bel Canto, Da Capo, Aurora, and Concert Choir. She was also active in Tri-M, OnStage, theater and event tech, Spanish National Honor Society, speech, and debate. Ahilya's favorite choir memories are the Bel Canto trip to Chicago and singing at Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church with Dr. Andrew Last. After graduation, she will pursue a Bachelor of Science degree in Health Science on the pre-medical track at the University of Minnesota–Rochester. Ahilya wants to thank her best friend Jenna for being by her side.

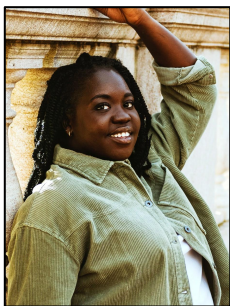

Brian Boakye-Ansah sang in Cantemus, Cantemus Chamber Ensemble, Vivace, and Concert Choir. He was also active in football, basketball, and track. Brian looks forward to studying business administration at the University of Minnesota while also running track for the Gophers. His parting advice is to enjoy every moment of high school, because it really does go by very fast.

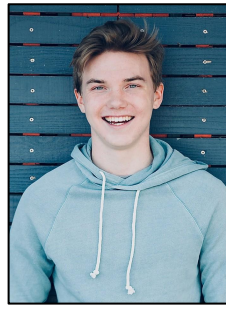

Henry Buck sang in Cantemus, Cantemus Chamber Ensemble, Vivace, Da Capo, Luminos, Chamber Singers, and Concert Choir. He is a two-year member of the Minnesota All-State Choirs and was selected for Regional Honor Choir his junior year. He also played soccer for three years and performed in OnStage every year of high school. Next year he plans to take a gap year and make music. Henry thanks his parents, his first music teachers, for encouraging his passion for music and supporting him in everything he does.

Goyal Buckley sang in Cantemus, Cantemus Chamber Ensemble, Vivace, Da Capo, Luminos, Chamber Singers, and Concert Choir. He also performed in OnStage, musicals, plays, and the dance show, and was a member of Tri-M Honor Society. His favorite high school memory is being voted an Irish Royal by his peers. Goyal plans to study mechanical engineering at UW–Stout. His parting advice to younger students is not to limit yourself and to try out for everything you can, because the fun you'll have and the friends you'll make when you step outside your comfort zone will enrich your life immensely.

Mercy Bullen sang in Cantabile, Cantabile Chamber Ensemble, Bel Canto, and Concert Choir, and participated in OnStage, Tri-M, the dance show, Beyonds Hip Hop Dance Team, Inclusivity Club, Prom Committee, and Reimage Student Committee. She will pursue a music degree with a minor in acting at Columbia College in Chicago. Her favorite high school memories are the OnStage and Beyonds dance rehearsals and performances. Mercy's advice to younger students is to take care of yourself, be yourself, and enjoy every single moment, because your high school years pass in the blink of an eye.

Ethan Christensen sang in Cantemus, Vivace, and Concert Choir. He also performed in OnStage, which is his favorite high school memory. Ethan plans to attend St. John's University and is currently undecided about a major. He advises younger students to make the most of the time you have in high school, and thanks his parents for making him the person he is today.

Claire Chumbley sang in Concert Choir, Da Capo, and Aurora. She was also in Marching Band, Jazz Band, OnStage, Tri-M Honor Society, National Honor Society, and Spanish National Honor Society, and participated in Science Olympiad and golf. Claire plans to study exercise science on a pre-physical therapy track at Loyola University in Chicago. Her favorite choir memory is the Concert Choir lock-in her junior year, because it was the first time everyone met and sang together. She thanks Mr. A for encouraging her to join curricular choir when she had only been in OnStage and co-curricular choir.

Joshua Cobian sang in Cantemus, Cantemus Chamber Ensemble, Vivace, Da Capo, Luminos, Chamber Singers, and Concert Choir. He also participated in OnStage, Tri-M, NHS, and German National Honor Society, and was captain of the swim team. His favorite choir memory is the Concert Choir lock-in his junior year. Joshua plans to study computer engineering at UW–Madison. He advises younger students to be confident, and remember they're here for a reason. He thanks Mr. A for inspiring him to make singing such a huge part of his life.

Sydney Dixon sang in Concert Choir and Aurora. She was also in band, Marching Band, Tri-M, OnStage, and Icettes. Her favorite performing arts memory is OnStage her junior year, especially the number "No Good Deed." Sydney plans to pursue a musical theatre degree with a minor in arts administration at the University of Wisconsin–Eau Claire. Sydney is grateful for so many great memories with friends, and thanks her parents for supporting her and always encouraging her to do what she loves.

Hailey Gallagher sang in Da Capo, Aurora, and Concert Choir, and also performed in Marching Band, Jazz Band, Wind Ensemble, Pep Band, OnStage, and other theatre productions. Her favorite high school memories came from being involved in all of the arts programs, as they always gave her something to look forward to. Hailey plans to pursue a double major in psychology and criminology at the U of M–Duluth to. Her parting advice is to participate in everything you can without stretching yourself too thin; you won't regret it!

Cap George was in choir from the start of ninth grade until the middle of his junior year. He sang in Cantemus, Cantemus Chamber Ensemble, Da Capo, and Vivace.

Cap was also involved in numerous other school groups and activities including football, basketball, and Student Council. He had a fine tenor voice, a smile that lit up the room, and a heart big enough to hold everyone. We were blessed and inspired by his zest for life and his fighting spirit. Though his time here ended far too soon, he left his handprint on all of our hearts, and we will carry him with us always as we go forward into the world.

Greta Green sang in Cantabile, Cantabile Chamber Ensemble, Bel Canto, Chamber Singers, Aurora, and Concert Choir. She was also actively involved in the dance program, NHS and Tri-M Honor Society, and was a member of the Modern Dance Company. Greta will attend the University of Kansas to earn a degree in elementary education with a minor in dance. She reminds everyone to enjoy the little things.

Christopher Guden sang in Vivace and also performed in Marching Band and OnStage. His favorite high school memories are of the time he spent with his friends. Christopher plans to attend the University of Wisconsin–Madison. He wants to thank his family for always supporting him.

Joey Hall sang in Cantemus, Cantemus Chamber Ensemble, Vivace, Da Capo, Luminos, and Concert Choir. He was also in plays, OnStage, and the musical, and his favorite memories are of performing live on stage. Joey plans to study environmental science at the University of Minnesota. He encourages younger students to try everything; don't be afraid to branch out and experience new things.

Heidi Hanson sang in Cantabile, Cantabile Chamber Ensemble, Bel Canto, Da Capo, Aurora, Chamber Singers, and Concert Choir. She was also in Tri-M, NHS, GNHS, and was heavily involved in RHS theatre as a student director, a performer in OnStage and the musicals, and a member of the tech crew. A favorite

(awkward?) memory is when she asked a student teacher his favorite color. (Turned out, he's colorblind.) Next year Heidi will pursue an English degree at Winona State University. She thanks Mrs. Toso for teaching her that her opinions are wanted, important, and NOT stupid at any time. :')

Robbie Hayes sang in Cantemus, Cantemus Chamber Ensemble, Vox Nova, Da Capo, Vivace, Luminos and Concert Choir. He was also in OnStage and played baseball and basketball. His favorite memory by far is OnStage; he never expected it to be such an awesome experience. Robbie will attend Iowa State University. His parting advice to younger students: If you play sports or your friends think it's nerdy to be a singer, don't listen to them. Do what makes you happy. No one is "too cool" to sing!

Amber Hernandez sang in Cantabile, Cantabile Chamber Ensemble, Bel Canto, Da Capo, Aurora, Chamber Singers, and Concert Choir. She was also active in Tri-M, OnStage, and solo-ensemble contest. She will never forget the moment when the massed choir started singing with the orchestra at the Dakota Valley

Choral Festival her junior year. Next year Amber will begin a degree in English education at UW–Eau Claire. She thanks all the teachers who never gave up on her and helped her when times were hard, and she reminds younger students to get involved and meet as many people as they can.

Kyle Hynes sang in Cantemus and Vox Nova, and participated in speech and debate his freshman year. He will start his college career at Normandale Community College and wants to pursue writing as a profession. Kyle's parting advice to younger students is to remember that even though high school is only one stage of your life, be sure to try your best while you're here, invest time in what you truly want to do, and don't be too hard on yourself if you struggle sometimes.

Danielle Johnson sang in Cantabile, Cantabile Chamber Ensemble, Bel Canto, Da Capo, Aurora, and Concert Choir. She was also active in OnStage, Tri-M, NHS, and French National Honor Society. Her favorite memory is the OnStage productions, where she made so many amazing friends. Danielle plans to pursue a major in

MAY THE ROAD
rise to meet you.

MAY THE WIND
always be at your back.

MAY THE SUN
shine warm upon your face;

MAY THE RAINS
fall soft upon your fields,
and until we meet again,

MAY GOD HOLD YOU
in the palm of His hand.
